

Welcome to our comprehensive listing of all the Fuchsias we grow and sell. To say we are specialist growers is not an understatement – we have the widest range in the South East of England. Come and see for yourself!

How To Use This Fuchsia List

You will see that we have broken this down into the following sections:

Hardy Varieties

As the name suggests, these varieties are garden hardy and if planted into the open ground during the active growing season (late May – early September) they will establish and survive severe frost and snowy Winters.

Half Hardy Garden Fuchsias

These varieties are not fully hardy but can either be left in the garden with roots planted deeper than usual and mulched well in the autumn or they can be kept in a cold greenhouse or polly tunnel. Do not let the plants completely dry out but keep on the dry side.

How To Purchase Your Fuchsias

Come And Visit Us!

Plants collected from the Nursery are available in 9cm pots at £3.95 each. Due to the wide range of varieties we grow it is inevitable that we don't have all varieties available all the time! If you are making a special or long journey we would recommend you contacting us either by telephone or email to check we have the variety you are seeking in stock.

Purchasing By Mail Order

The Fuchsias we sell by mail order are exactly the same as those you would purchase if you visited us; we do not supply cuttings or plug plants – the plants supplied are well grown in 9cm pots individually named and packed. Our Fuchsias are usually available by mail order from approximately early May until September.

Sparkles Fuchsia Food

Our exclusive proprietary brand of soluble fertiliser especially formulated for Fuchsias. Formulated from micro-nutrients and carbon this feed is good for both flower and foliage, maintaining good strength and vitality of the plant. Can be used on other flowering pot plants too with equally beneficial effects. 50 gallon pack £7.25.

Fuchsia Seed - Produce Your Own Hybrids

Have you ever thought where new Fuchsias come from? They are raised either from plants that genetically sport or more typically from line breeding by cross pollinating particular parent plants and raising from the seed produced. This is what we offer you now, together with the 'guaranteed success' raising advice. You will produce new and line bred F1 Hybrid plants from our seeds. Approx 25 seeds and full guidance for £4.90.
